

Literacy

Grammar and spellings throughout

Narratives: Mayan folk tale Kukulkan and Chocolatl

Non-fiction:

Report writing on the development of chocolate

Debate on the health benefits, or not of chocolate.

Geography

Map Skills- Understanding of the countries of the World and the physical geography of South America. Especially in relation to the conditions needed for growing chocolate.

Physical geography including: climate zones, biomes and vegetation belts.

Human geography, including: types of settlement and land use, economic activity including trade links, and the distribution of natural resources.

Craft, Design and Technology

Product analysis and creation.
Packaging design and selling.
Purpose. Creating chocolate products for an enterprise afternoon. Community links with the Coop.

Art

Chocolate art colour and design for chocolate packaging and selling.

Mayan headdresses

History

Mayan civilization

The finding and development of chocolate until this spread throughout the World.

Time line of chocolate until the present day.

Numeracy

- Fractions, decimals and percentages
- Measures and conversion
- Number and place value
- Statistics, collating and graphing information.

Main theme: Chocolate KS2

Science

Materials and States of matter., solids liquids and gases.

The reversible and irreversible changes

Personal and Social Education

Review and reflection, target setting for the New Year. How can we improve ourselves and our interaction with others?

Cultural festivals and the celebration of patron saints.

Information and Computer Technology

Internet safety

Pivot Animation

Animation programme by using a character and moving them incrementally.

Music

Orchestration

Different instruments in the orchestra.

Playing different instruments.

British Values

My healthy lifestyle...is chocolate good for you?

Mutual respect and tolerance-
fair trade

PE

Ball skills, throwing and catching

Team games:

Hockey skills

Netball skills

Religious Education

Christianity- Easter